Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 25, 1903,

Distrust of Left Hanned Barbers "I have struck all kings of barbers in my trips about the country," said the man who travels, "but the one kind that always makes me feel as if I was is the left handed barber. I have been shaved by several of their class. They have been good barbers, too, every one of them, but no matter how well they knew their business they always gave me a bad turn, and every time they drew the razor across my face I felt as if life and I were about ready to part company. Of course it is foolish, but novadays when I find myself assigned to a left handed barber I leave the shop on some pretext or other and go else-where to be beautified. Other men whom I have sounded on the subject have confessed to the same weakness, and women have told me that they have a like unexplainable dread of left handed hairdressers. In the dressmak-ing business, too, I am told, a left hand-ed cutter and fitter is pretty sure to give the customer a crop of goose flesh, while even a harmless occupation like manicuring can always be relied on to produce real shivers if pursued by a person whose cleverness lies in her left

What Tilden Lent.

When Mr. Tilden in 1874 was nomi-nated for governor of New York, Mr. Dorsheimer received the nomination for lieutenant governor. The ticket thus headed was elected by about 50,000 majority. A little knot of Germans in New York city who usually voted the Republican ticket took Mr. Dorsheimer from his name to be a German, and they scratched their ticket in his favor, so that he had a majority of nearly 53,-000. One day after Mr. Tilden and Mr. Dorsheimer had been inaugurated they met at a political breakfast at the for-mer's house in Gramercy park. Mr. Tilden had always felt a little sore at Mr. Dorsheimer's extra majority, and when in the current of conversation Mr. Dorsheimer Jestingly said, "Well, governor, you must remember I had 3,000 more majority than you," as quick as a flash Mr. Tilden retorted, "Yes, you supplied the 3,000, and I lent you the fits."

A Fine Piece of Work.

"I tell you," exclaimed the young medical student, "our professor is an eminent surgeon.'

"How's that?" asked his chum. "Well, a fellow was brought in with a crushed leg. The professor said it must come off. But by some means or other he cut off the wrong leg."

"Do you call that a fine plece of surgery?"
"Wait a bit. The professor said it would be terrible for the poor fellow to go about with no legs at all, so he splintered up the crushed leg instead of cutting that off, too, and now it is as good as ever. An ordinary surgeon would have left the fellow legless. Wonderful skill, the professor's!"

An Effective Threat.

A youth was engaged as junior cierk by a firm of lawyers, and by way of filling in his time and testing his worth on his first day he was told to write a letter demanding payment of a debt from a client who was long in arrears. To the great surprise of his employers a check for the amount arrived the next day. They sent for the young clerk and asked him to produce a copy of the letter which had had such an astonishing result. The letter ran as

Dear Sir-If you do not at once remit payment of the amount which you owe us, we will take steps that will amaze you.

Oac Little Day.

"It is a blessed secret," says one, "that of living by the day. Any one can carry his burden, however heavy, until nightfall, and any one can do his work, however hard, till the sun goes down. Any one can live patiently, lovingly and purely for one day. And this is all life means to us—just one little day." Why not try this truth.—Philadelphia North American.

A Still Greater Contrast.

A Still Greater Contrast.

"Are you going to take that ugly pug dog with you again, Carrie?" asked Charles. "I really believe you take him simply to make yourself look pret-tier by the contrast."
"Don't be jealous of poor Pug, Char-

"There go the Spicer Wilcoxes, mam-ma! I'm told they're dying to know us. Hadn't we better call?" "Certainly not, dear! If they're dy-

The Easy Pill.

The Easy Pill.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers do not gripe nor weaken the system. They cure biliousness, jaundice, constipation and inactive livers, by arousing the secretions, moving the howels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach, liver and bowels that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely. These famous little pills exert a decided tonic effect upon the organ involved, and if their use is continued for a few days there will be no return of the trouble, E. S. Lendbeater & Son.

MISS MONIE BOWEY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN. No. 38 Perry Street,

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I feit generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was once more well and strong. I have never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine.

MONIE BOWEY.

Wine of Cardui makes women more womanly by curing them stronger. Wine of Cardui cured Miss Bowey. As a medicine for all women in every trying period of their lives can you think of a better medicine for your sister, your daughter or your mother? Can you think of a more acceptable present to give your friend will bring her health and happiness? You are suffering? Your duty is to rid yourself of this medicine which will bring her health and happiness? You are suffering? Your duty is sick and in need of relief, your duty is equally great to them. Many women, now well, owe their lives to friends who brought them Wine of Cardui.

Wine of Cardui is adapted to women at any age in any walk of life. For the working woman it gives her strength for her tasks and better treatment than a doctor for very small cost.
